Description of Services: Specialized services in the area of nanofabrication and analytics as listed at <http://chanl.unc.edu/fees.html>

Terms and Conditions

1) Services. The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill ("University") possesses materials characterization, fabrication and analysis expertise and related technologies and equipment through its Chapel Hill Analytical and Nanofabrication Laboratory (CHANL) ("Facility"). Client has instructed Facility to undertake the specific services described above (the "Services"). In consideration of Client's payment to the Facility in accordance with the terms stated herein, the Facility shall perform the Services. Should the Services provided under this Agreement include the provision of human tissue or samples, Client agrees to use said human tissue or samples only for non-commercial, internal research and development purposes. In addition, Client certifies it has all necessary rights to provide Facility with any human samples to be used for the Services to be provided hereunder, and Client further agrees not to transfer said human tissue or samples to any third party without Facility's express written permission.

2) Reports. Facility shall provide Client with a report regarding the data obtained in the course of the Services. The report shall be maintained as confidential pursuant to Section 3 below. If University employees engaged in the Services wish to publish results of the Services which do not disclose Confidential Information (defined below), University shall submit the proposed publication or disclosure to Client for its review at least thirty (30) days prior to the scheduled submission of such proposed publication or disclosure to any third party (including, without limitation, to any journal for review). At Client's request, University shall delete Client's Confidential Information from such proposed publication or disclosure.

3) Confidentiality. Any confidential or proprietary information disclosed by Client to University ("Confidential Information") shall be disclosed in writing and designated as confidential and/or proprietary, or if disclosed orally, shall be confirmed in writing and designated confidential and/or proprietary within thirty (30) days of such disclosure. University shall use the Confidential Information only for the purpose of this Agreement and further agrees that it will not disclose or publish such Confidential Information except that the foregoing restrictions shall not apply to: (a) Confidential Information which is or becomes publicly known through no breach of this agreement by University; (b) Confidential Information learned from a third party entitled to disclose such information; (c) Confidential Information already known to or developed by University prior to receipt hereunder, or information independently developed at any time by University personnel not privy to the Confidential Information, as shown by University's written records; or (d) Confidential Information required to be disclosed by operation of law (including, but not limited to, the North Carolina Public Records Act) or court order. The obligation of confidentiality imposed by this Section shall expire three (3) years following the expiration or termination of this Agreement. University will use a reasonable degree of care to prevent the inadvertent, accidental, unauthorized, or mistaken disclosure or use by its employees of Confidential Information. For avoidance of doubt, data, information, results, materials, or products of the Services shall be considered Confidential Information for the purposes of this Agreement.

4) Intellectual Property. It is not anticipated that intellectual property will arise in University's performance of the Services. However, in the event of an invention by at least one employee of University the intellectual property shall be owned as follows: a) Inventions which involve the use of, composition of, or improvement to Client-provided materials or information, or a derivative, analogue thereof shall belong to Client; and b) Inventions which cover a scientific or analytical measurement process, technique, procedure, medium, device or other process which is not unique to characterizing, testing, or fabricating Client's proprietary materials or does not derive from Client-provided materials or Client's Confidential Information shall be owned by University.

5) Publicity. Neither party will use the name of the other party in any publicity, advertising, or news release without the prior written approval of the authorized representative of the other party.

6) Termination. Either party may terminate this Agreement upon prior written notice to the other party. All reasonable costs and non-cancelable obligations incurred by University at the time of said termination shall be reimbursed by Client. At the request of Client, all unused Client-provided materials at the time of termination shall either be returned to Client or destroyed by University at the Client's expense.

7) Independent Contractor. In the performance of the Services, University shall be deemed to be and shall be an independent contractor.

8) No Warranties and Indemnity. University makes no warranties, express or implied, regarding the quality of product produced under this Agreement. University shall use its reasonable efforts to perform the Services. University does not warrant or guarantee any results from a given project. University shall not be liable for Client's use of the report or other information provided by University. To the extent permitted by law, Client shall indemnify and hold harmless University against any claims and costs (including attorney's fees) arising out of Client's commercial sale or distribution of products or processes developed under this Agreement.

9) Export Control. University will not accept export-controlled materials or technical information under this Agreement. Client hereby represents and warrants that materials and technical information provided to University do not require any license from the U.S. government before being exported.

10) Hazardous Materials. All materials provided by Client must be accompanied by the appropriate environmental and safety information for those materials as required by law.

11) Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of North Carolina.

12) Payment Terms. Net 60 days upon receipt of invoice. Unpaid invoices will result in suspension of CHANL access. Payments can be made via credit cards, purchasing cards, or electronic funds transfer. Checks shall be made payable to: University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill and sent to:

13) Entire Agreement. This Agreement contains the entire agreement between the parties respecting the subject matter and supersedes or cancels all previous negotiations, agreements, commitments and writings between the parties on the subject of this Agreement. Should processing of this Agreement require issuance of a purchase order or other contractual document, all terms and conditions of said document are hereby deleted in entirety. This Agreement may not be amended in any manner except by an instrument in writing signed by the duly authorized representatives of each of the parties hereto.
